BISBEE NEWS.

Daily Happenings at the Great Copper Camp.

Budget of Interesting Items from our Regular Correspondent.

Bisbee, Nov. 22, 1896.

Louis Bodecker came in again on the train this evening to help look after one of the large cattle shipments which are now being made constantly.

About the usual number of passengers went out on the train this morning. They consisted principally of cattle men and drummers, both varieties of gentlemen being quite numerous about town of late.

Dr. Farrington returned from Tombstone this evening after a very pleasant business trip. He did quite a good deal of dental work while there and says he thinks he can still make a living even if he was beaten for the assembly. The doctor is all right and made a good strong fight for a reputation in this county this year. He's not dead yet by any means.

Quite a number of petty offenses have been committed around the A. & S. E. yards of late and the company has been compelled to organize a detective force to stop matters before they become common nuisances. Mr. V. R. Stiles has been appointed head of this department, and this morning with the aid of one of his assistants, he managed to "capture" one of the offending spirits. What offense this particular person was committing when surprised by Volney and his assistant, we have been unable to find out; as Mr. Stiles has kept himself rather scarce during the day. We will interview him in the morning and try and have the particulars for tomorrow's issue.

We have been told that it was quite a comical affair, but by the way their victim pleaded for his release. We are confident that he saw nothing funny about the matter whatever. He was particularly good on the plea and finally touched a tender chord in Volney's heart by a tale about a heart-broken mother and secured his release.

This is the only fault with Mr. Stiles in that responsible position, he's too tender hearted. We commend his ability for detecting a wrong-doer but that is not all that is necessary for the making of a first-class sleuth. We hope to see him fill his shoes with cotton wool and slaying with the police.

"We had an epidemic of dysentery in this vicinity last summer," says Samuel S. Pollock, of Bismarck, Cal. "I was taken with it and suffered severely until some one called my attention to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I procured a bottle and felt better after the first dose. Before long half of the boys had been used. I was well. I recommended it to my friends and their experience was the same. We all unite in saying it is the best." For sale by Druggists.

SUNSET LIMITED.

The Sunset Limited train which leaves Benson twice a week going east or west is by far the finest and most magnificent transcontinental passenger train in existence. It is incomparable, unequalled and unequalled. No expense has been spared to make it perfect in every respect, and all that human skill or science could invent and apply to make it absolutely perfect has been applied. Luxury and beauty have been combined with strength and safety, and, moreover, it spans the continent, annihilating time and space in its marvelous flight. All who have had the pleasure of a trip on this train unhesitatingly pronounce it the very finest in the world. A ticket on this costs no more than on the regular train.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

TOMBSTONE, Oct. 20, 1896.
TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: Take notice that on the 28th day of September, 1896, the firm of Haskewood and Huddy, doing business at Pearce, county of Cochise, Arizona, mortgaged to Geo. H. Pitts all the stock in trade and personal property of said firm, including the book accounts, and gave him possession of the same, and the same property and book accounts were attached in the suit of F. H. Warnekers, Haskewood and Huddy.

This is therefore to warn all persons who are indebted to said firm not to pay the same to the said Haskewood and Huddy, or either of them, as such payment will not be recognized by us.
